

JUSTICE OF PEACE COURT—TO-DAY. (Before W. R. ARTHUR and F. HAMILTON, Decls.)

BRIDGE OF OVERCASTICE.—John Owen, spirit-dealer, North...

BRIDGE OF THE PEACE.—Michael Kelly and Thomas Hendry...

WIFE.—Lemuel Sawyer, Tollner, was sent 60 days to prison...

POLICE INTELLIGENCE—TO-DAY. (Before James Laing and Brown, Decls.)

HERNANDES.—David Brown, for trafficking in spirits and beer...

CONTRACTORS.—Several cab-owners were fined in 2s. 6d.

WIDOW.—A girl named Mary Dodds, was charged with forging...

THEFT.—James Love, a French-polisher, residing at 122 Gallowgate...

CHARGE OF RISE.—Catherine Wallace or Queen was committed to the Sheriff...

THEFT.—Robert McCall pleaded guilty to stealing a vest, the property of Peter McLean...

THEFT.—A man and woman named respectively Edward Thompson...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

ROYAL INSURANCE ALMANAC.—The almanac of the Royal Insurance Company...

THE POLICE BOARD AND THE HEAD OF HORSE STREET.—Mr. Jas. S. Baylis has addressed a letter to the morning papers...

NARROW ESCAPE OF A BOAT'S BOY AT GEORGETOWN.—Yesterday morning, shortly before daylight, while the Earl of Dublin was stowing into Greenock Quay...

DEATH OF THE REGENTS.—General's return, six persons died of intemperance in London, last week.

THE LAMBERT CHILD MURDERER.—The man Thomas Smith, who strangled a baby, the illegitimate child of a woman...

DANGERS OF THE LONDON STREETS.—The Registrar-General, in his last issued report, referring to London, says that during the year 1866...

THE WINE OFFICE.—Drummond publishes a statement, in which he says he was discharged as the "Victoria Prisoner."

BOB BRITTELL AT A MUNICIPAL ELECTORATE. At the Quarter Sessions for North-west London...

THE PARAGUAYAN WAR. The dates from the seat of war in Paraguay by the Royal Mail...

SCOTT'S ACCOUNTANTS. The Times recommends the formation in London of an association...

THE ABYSSINIAN EXPEDITION. By telegram, despatched from Suva yesterday, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m.

MR. HALLICE, M.P. OF THE SCOTCH REFORM BILL. Mr. Edward Hallice, Member for Glasgow, has addressed his constituents at Anstruther on Tuesday...

THEFT.—A man named Peter MacLean, was sent to prison for 30 days.

THEFT.—A man and woman named respectively Edward Thompson...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

LATEST NEWS.

SECRETARYSHIP OF LORD'S. Rear-Admiral Halstead resigned the secretaryship of Lord's yesterday...

THE PARAGUAYAN WAR. The dates from the seat of war in Paraguay by the Royal Mail...

SCOTT'S ACCOUNTANTS. The Times recommends the formation in London of an association...

THE ABYSSINIAN EXPEDITION. By telegram, despatched from Suva yesterday, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m.

MR. HALLICE, M.P. OF THE SCOTCH REFORM BILL. Mr. Edward Hallice, Member for Glasgow...

THEFT.—A man named Peter MacLean, was sent to prison for 30 days.

THEFT.—A man and woman named respectively Edward Thompson...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

The Daily News article of this morning says: Most of the railway traffic reported published this week...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...

THEFT.—A student was convicted of the theft of two silver watches from the shop of a carpenter...

THEFT.—A female servant was convicted of the theft of a pair of gold earrings from the house of a merchant...