

FINAL EXTRA

NET WEEKLY SALES LARGER THAN THOSE OF ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER IN AUSTRALIA

ABOVE ALL
THE SUN
"FOR AUSTRALIA"

FINE AND MILD
CITY FORECAST:
Fine with moderate
day temperature and some passing cloud.

No. 6803.

(Registered at the General Post Office, Sydney, for transmission by post as a newspaper.)

SYDNEY: MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1931

PRICE 1½d.

'Phone: B. O. 333

HAS 283 DESCENDANTS

COONAMBLE, Monday.—A host of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Emma Kemp, "Mother of the Central-West," on Saturday, and gave her a surprise party to celebrate her 96th birthday anniversary. The old lady, who is possessed of all her faculties, told many stirring tales of the convict and bush-ranging days. Mrs. Kemp and her mother and brother were the first settlers at Coonamble. Mrs. Kemp has 283 descendants, spread over four generations, which is claimed as an Australian record. She had 16 children, the eldest of whom is now 75.

HAS 283 DESCENDANTS (1931, October 19). The Sun (Sydney, NSW : 1910 - 1954), p. 10 (FINAL EXTRA). Retrieved November 5, 2020, from <http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article223672448>