NOTE.—In Field Notes of Survey there should be no erasures; any erroneous entry should be struck through, and the correct particulars written above it. The date of commencement and completion of the Survey should be noted. As soon as the book is filled, and when Plans and reports have been transmitted, this Field Book, with the Index completed, and signed and dated by the Surveyor, should be forwarded under cover of a letter or memorandum to the Chief Surveyor. It is desirable that leaves be not taken from the book.
